

Clovek: Brrrrrrrr...
So cold...
I'm completely frozen...
I can't feel my hands...

L: Lets start the fire here!
R: It is really not good idea. We should go find some civilization.
L: We have to strike fire from something. Could you give me a hand?
- 1.2. R
This combination won't work.
- 1.3. R
Two identical types of stones do not burn out the fire.
- 1.4. L
Yay, this could work.
- 1.5. R
R: This will not help us. Please, let's go find the way to a shelter.
- 1.6. L
We are missing some tinder.
- 1.7. LR
R: And what now?
L: Now we have to add easily flammable sticks and little by little make the fire bigger and bigger.
- 1.8. L
Nice work!
- 1.9. R
That's the last straw. The fire is too small and we cant make it bigger. We still have some time to find the way to the shelter. So hurry up!
- 1.10. R
We only have a few minutes left. We'll freeze to death because of your stupid idea.
- 1.11. R
You are insane if you think this will work out. It's freezing so hard.
- 1.12. L
Hell yeah, I told you I can make the best fire in the world.

R: No, let's go find some hiding place, where we can spend the night.
L: It is really not good idea. We should start the fire.
R: It will safe us from death.
- 2.2. L
You are insane if you think this will work out. I can't even see my toes through the massive fog.
- 2.3. L
It got out of hand. This is not the right way, we have to light the fire!
- 2.4. L
Stop immediately. This is waste of our precious time, I doubt anyone lives around here.
- 2.5. L
There is no sign of any civilization, we will froze to death.
- 2.6. L
We should start the fire, now it's too late.
- 1.7. R
Look, can you see the cabin in the distance?
